

With no connections, tab 4 should connect to either tab 1 or 7 (clicking the switch selects which). Use a multimeter, set to ohms, to check. Rotate the switch until it corresponds with the diagram - it's much easier to work if the orientation is the same.

3PDT footswitch